The Women's Major Group and the co-chairs of the Network of Women Ministers and Leaders for the Environment invite you to the Women's Rio+20 Good Practice Award Ceremony at the Rio+20 summit.

Women-led organizations and groups working on sustainable development in a developing country will receive the Women's Rio+20 Good Practice Award. The women winners will receive 1000 USD which will be presented by members of the Network at a festive ceremony on 21 of June.

The winners are awarded in 5 categories:

- 1. Food sovereignty
- 2. Climate adaptation
- 3. Decent jobs and health
- 4. Water and sanitation
- 5. Sustainable energy

The Women's Rio+20 Good Practice Award is organised by WECF with the Women's Major Group core partners, UNEP and the Network of Women Ministers and Leaders for the Environment. The award is funded by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and supported through GIZ's programme "Promoting Gender Equality and Women's Rights".
